

At Castle Camps C of E Primary School, we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 6th March 2015. We are using World Book Day to launch our 'Reading for Pleasure' month. There will be lots of exciting reading based activities taking place throughout the whole of March so please look out for further details of activities, events and competitions to take part in.

FRIDAY 6TH
MARCH 2015

DRESS UP AS YOUR FAVOURITE BOOK CHARACTER.

Come in costume as your favourite character and BRING THE BOOK THEY FEATURE IN.

There will be prizes for the best costumes - how original can you be?

There are fantastic tips and ideas here:

http://www.bookaid.org/get-involved/fundraise/schools/world-book-day-2014/dress_up_resources/

Every child will receive a £1 book token to spend on a book of their choice at shops nationwide.

Can you help?

Do you enjoy storytelling? Are you a budding author or illustrator? We are looking for parents, grandparents or other members of the local community to take part in activities and workshops throughout March. Please get in touch with me if you'd like to get involved.

With thanks,
Miss Smith.
