WORLD
BOOK
DAY

Dear Parents,

Reading for Pleasure

Reminder: Mobile Planetarium Workshops & World Book Day

As mentioned in my previous newsletters, we shall be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday, 2nd March. The theme for this year is 'Out of this World!' and as a special treat for the children, we have managed to book in a very special visit from a mobile planetarium! During the day, each class will enjoy a workshop inside the dome, where they will be learning about all about the solar system. To enjoy the day to the full, we are asking the children to dress up in a costume linked to our 'Out of this World' theme. Children can link their costume to a fiction story or an aspect of the Space Topic – The Book Trust website has some excellent suggestions for children's fiction books with a space theme:

<http://www.booktrust.org.uk/books/search/?query=Space>

Please make sure that your child is comfortable in their costume and that they will be able to sit down on the floor in the space dome. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

World Book Day Vouchers

Please find attached to this letter your free £1 World Book Day Voucher. This entitles you to ONE FREE WORLD BOOK DAY book OR to £1 OFF a book or audiobook (worth £2.99 or more) in all participating bookshops. The offer is valid from 27th February – 26th March 2017 inclusive.

Jack Trelawny (Author Visit)

In addition to our World Book Day activities, on Wednesday, 8th March we will be welcoming popular children's author, Jack Trelawny into school. Mr Trelawny will be reading from a selection of his recent books and presenting a short slideshow to the children about writing. If you would like to pre-order a copy of one of Mr Trelawny's books, please see the letter attached. There is no obligation to purchase a book but if you would like to reserve a copy, please follow the information stated on the letter. To avoid disappointment, please ensure that the completed form and cash/cheque (payable to 'Campion Books') are returned to school by Monday, 6th March. Mr Trelawny has not indicated in his correspondence to me whether he will accept World Book Day vouchers, so please assume this is not the case.

Yours sincerely,

Miss O'Connor
